

A.C.E. Grant Application

The information requested below will allow the Academic Cooperative for Excellence in Education (A.C.E.) organization to evaluate any grant request to promote academic achievement in the Logan-Hocking School District. In order for A.C.E. to provide funding, the grant request must be in line with the purpose of A.C.E. as defined in its constitution as follows:

1. To support and promote academic programs in grades pre-K-12 in the Logan Hocking School District.
2. To encourage and recognize academic achievement within the Logan Hocking School District.
3. To serve as a host organization for the Logan Hocking School District to disseminate information to the general public regarding the academic programs in the district.
4. To encourage a partnership of students, parents, school personnel and community members to develop ways and means to support academic excellence in the Logan Hocking School District.

All requests must provide students with incentives for doing well, and/or demonstrate that, in some way, the mini grant will be an incentive based plan for improving student performance.
